Highway Under Water

- Mysuru-Ooty Highway (NH-766) submerged at Mallanamoole Mutt Junction near Nanjangud
- Traffic on Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway diverted
- Holiday declared for Mysuru Schools

A stretch of the busy Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway partially submerged in flood water at Mallanamoole Mutt Junction this morning.

Mysuru, July 19 (RK&BS)- Following heavy rains, Mysuru-Ooty Road (National Highway-766) is submerged near Mallanamoole Mutt junction close to Nanjangud, with overflow of water from River Kapila, flowing adjacent to the Highway, due to heavy discharge of water from Kabini Dam.

The Highway is closed for traffic from yesterday 11 pm itself, with the Police diverting vehicles coming from Mysuru side towards Nanjangud near Adakanahalli Industrial Area and connect to the Hejjige Bridge to travel further towards the temple town, as it connects Gundlupet and Chamarajanagar Roads. While on the opposite side, vehicles coming towards Mysuru have to take diversion towards the same Hejjige Bridge and proceed further via Tandavapura to reach the Highway.

It is said that, flood water is standing above four feet from the ground, submerging the Highway near Mallanamoole Mutt junction, a low-lying area, which is vulnerable to floods during such rainy conditions in the district, in the recent years.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

FOLLOW VIRTUOUS QUALITIES: To make their lives more purposeful and meaningful, people should follow virtuous qualities such as respecting elders, developing friendship, living a contented life and expressing sympathy. Sri Damodhar Dikshidhar said in a discourse that, unfortunately, even if elders are ill-willed towards us, we should not fail to respect them. On return from his penance, the young child Dhruva prostrated at the feet of his father and stepmother, who were the reason for his going to the forest. He told them he would not have had the rarest opportunity to derive Lord Vishnu's blessings if his desire (to sit on his father's lap) had not been refused. Sri Rama had not uttered a single word when asked to go to the forest but prostrated at the feet of His stepmother Kaikeyi, the most undeserving responsible for His exile.

Men should learn to practice leading a contented life based on what they have. The poor Kusela used to go for Unchavruthi every day but would return when the vessel was even half full. Saint Thyagaraja also did the same. When the king of Tanjore offered him a position in the kingdom, the saint refused in spite of his impecunious condition. All beings are God's creations and we have no right to harm them. Instead, we should show mercy and compassion. We should develop friendship instead of hatred. God will automatically shower His blessings on those who exhibit such virtuous qualities, like a cascade flowing down from a hill to a valley (Yasya Prasanno Bhagawan). —In The Hindu

Students ill after eating ghost pepper chips

Tokyo: Fourteen high school students in Tokyo, Japan were recently hospitalised with stomach ache, nausea and mouth pain after sharing a bag of potato chips infused with Bhut Jolokia peppers.

On July 16, several first-year students at Rokugo Koka High School in Tokyo's Ota Ward started complaining of nausea, as well as stomach and mouth pain. 13 girls and one boy had apparently been among 33 students at the high school who had shared a bag of super-spicy potato chips infused with "Bhut Jolokia," which was once listed in the Guinness Book of World Records as the "world's hottest pepper."

The students ended up at the emergency room and released later that day. Bhut Jolokia-infused potato chips are not meant to be eaten by people under the age of 18, because ghost peppers are about 200 times hotter than spicy Tabasco sauce.

Some thoughts on MP's cleaning drive

Sir,

I appreciate the initiative taken by our MP Yaduveer Wadiyar and others in cleaning Kukkarahalli Lake and its surroundings recently. However, have we not seen similar efforts in the past? Do we observe any long-term improvement from such efforts?

There is no other way to keep our city clean except by imposing penalties on those who pollute. Additionally, we should hire more people to monitor the polluters and expedite the cleaning process. By the time one area is cleaned, polluters start littering places that were cleaned just a few days ago. The Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) must understand that the speed of cleaning should be faster than the rate at which littering occurs. Isn't this simple common sense?

Here, I must commend the MCC pourakarmikas for their laudable job of collecting and removing garbage from house to house every single day, rain or shine. I am saying this from my daily observations in Vijayanagar 3rd Stage.

Shrikanth, known as Kantharaj to his colleagues, is incredibly sincere and dedicated to his work. For several years, I have seen him go out of his way to hand-pick garbage thrown by motorists on the side of the road from Bunts Bhavana to the traffic signal near the Aishwarya Petrol Bunk.

How can anyone expect someone to hand-pick dirty garbage? Would you pick up garbage with your bare hands if it were dirty and nauseating, thrown by others? You wouldn't. So how can you expect anyone else to pick up garbage thrown by you?

Instead, we should catch the person red-handed who is littering, make them pick up the garbage, and put it in the dustbin.

In short, I suggest imposing severe fines on polluters, like in Singapore, and hiring more people to keep the city continuously clean. Lastly, we should not mind paying higher taxes specifically for this objective. We can afford to pay for keeping our city clean when we have money to eat out, go to movies, and splurge on non-essentials at shopping malls.

Once we achieve the required level of cleanliness over time, we can think about making our city the most beautiful, which is possible (for which I will share my ideas once cleanliness is achieved).

Mission Hospital staff continue protest for salary, other demands

Mysuru, July 19 (PM & KS)- The employees of Holdsworth Memorial Hospital, popularly known as Mission Hospital, continued their indefinite protest urging the hospital authorities for payment of their pending salaries and revision of wages among other demands.

The protest being held under the banner of CSI Holdsworth Memorial (Mission) Hospital Employees Union entered the fifth day today.

Speaking to media persons, Union's General Secretary Wilson Prabhakar said that, over 150 employees including Hospital's office staff, nursing staff, ward heads, Group 'D' employees and other staff, except those in medical emergency services are staging protest by boycotting the work from 7 am to 9 pm.

He said that till today, none from the Hospital Administration have bothered to respond. "Salaries have not been paid since three months and wages have not been revised since seven years. Also, money is being deducted from salaries for ESI and PF, but the deducted money was not being deposited to either ESI or PF account," he added.

14-year-old e-learning scam reopened; CID probe begins

- Rs. 109 crore embezzled in Information and Communication Technology (ICT)-3 project launched by BJP Govt. in 2009
- District Institute of Educational Training officials to visit 4,396 schools to file reports to Economic Offences Wing of CID

Mysuru, July 19 (RK&BCT)- The Department of School Education, Research and Training (D.S.E.R.T.) has directed all Deputy Directors of the District Institute of Educational Training (DIET) to provide information to the Economic Offences Wing of Criminal Investigation Department (CID) concerning the Information and Communication Technology (ICT)-3 project launched by the BJP Government in 2009.

The investigation comes in the wake of a series of scams being exposed in Karnataka starting with Karnataka Maharshi Valmiki Scheduled Tribes Development Corporation, Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and Karnataka State Board of Wakf.

Implemented across the State, the ICT-3 project (ICT@Schools project) aimed to establish computer labs with servers, computers, digital cameras, printers, and LCD projectors in 1,763 Government Schools and 2,633 aided high schools. The project, which received a budget allocation of Rs. 147 crore, soon faced allegations of a Rs. 109-crore scam, which surfaced in 2010.

FIR in January 2024

Despite initial irregularities being sidelined, the School Education and Literacy Department reopened the case last year, leading to an internal inquiry.

Following submission of the inquiry report by retired IAS officer G.V. Krishna Rao in November 2023, an FIR was filed in January 2024 and the case was handed over to the CID by the State Government for further investigation.

According to the FIR, KEONICS (Karnataka State Electronics Development Corporation Limited) entered into an agreement with Chennai-based EVERRON Education Company, acting as a middleman by submitting the ICT-3 project proposal to the Government in violation of regulations.

This arrangement allowed EVERRON Education Company to purchase software even before acquiring the necessary hardware and withdraw funds from the Department.

Rs. 109-crore loss

The FIR states that unnecessary purchases resulted in a Rs. 109-crore loss to the Government. Additionally, the order issued by the Chief Minister was altered and files sent by the D.S.E.R.T. were discreetly closed at the department level to extend undue favours to KEONICS.

This wasteful expenditure led to the failure of the ICT-3 project, as servers, UPS, cameras and printers were bought before the computers, the FIR stated.

After the FIR was registered, the Police arrested an under-secretary-grade officer of the Department, who had served as a special officer for the then School Education Minister in 2009.

The Police were also looking for the then KEONICS Managing Director Hari Kumar Jha and the then MD of EVERRON Education Company P. Kishore.

Fresh circular to DIET

In a fresh circular issued on June 15, 2024, D.S.E.R.T. Director has asked DIET Deputy Directors to form Taluk-level teams including the DIET Nodal Officers and personally inspect all the 1,763 Government Schools and 2,633 aided high schools where the ICT-3 project was implemented.

They must submit a report to the CID under five parameters — site preparation in Government and aided high schools, supply of furniture, supply of computers and peripherals, annual maintenance cost expenditures and networking.

The reports under the five parameters must be filled in the prescribed formats after a thorough inspection of the funds released, equipment and furniture purchased, year of purchase, utilisation of computers and peripherals, plug points, network, wires projectors and UPS along with the field survey reports signed by the school heads.

Renukaswamy murder case

Court extends judicial custody of actor Darshan, 16 other accused till Aug. 1

Bengaluru, July 19 (Agencies)- The Special Court yesterday extended the judicial custody of Kannada actor Darshan, his friend Pavithra Gowda and 15 others in the Renukaswamy murder case till Aug. 1.

As the judicial custody of all the 17 accused ended yesterday, they were produced before the Magistrate through video conferencing from Bengaluru and Tumakuru prisons, where they are lodged.

The Special Public Prosecutor argued that releasing the accused could hinder ongoing investigations, as more details needed to be collected. The prosecution highlighted alleged attempts by the accused to destroy technical, physical and scientific evidence, demonstrating a disregard for the law.

The Special Prosecutor further disclosed the seizure of Rs. 83.65 lakh cash from the accused and noted their use of multiple SIM cards registered under different names to contact various individuals before, during and after the crime. The prosecution stressed that granting bail could lead to the destruction of crucial evidence.

Meanwhile, Darshan's petition in the High Court, seeking direction to the prison authorities to permit him to have access to private sourced/home food, cutlery, bedding and books to be supplied by his family members, is slated to come up for hearing today.

It may be recalled that Renukaswamy of Chitradurga, a fan of the actor, had sent obscene messages to Pavithra Gowda, which enraged Darshan, allegedly leading to his murder. His body was found near a storm-water drain next to an apartment in Sumanahalli here on June 9.

Youth arrested on charges of murdering friend

Mysuru, July 19 (KS)- Jayapura Police have arrested a youth on charges of murdering his friend.

The accused youth has been identified as Devaraj, a resident of D. Salundi in the taluk and the deceased is Vijay Bhaskar (32), friend of the accused and a resident of the same village.

Devaraj, after allegedly stabbing Bhaskar, had fled from the spot and the Jayapura Police, traced him on Sathyamangala Road near Chamarajanagar on Wednesday night and arrested him besides seizing the knife from him.

The accused was produced before a Court yesterday, which remanded him to judicial custody.

On last Sunday, Bhaskar and Devaraj fought over a petty issue in front of a bar near Kenchalagodu. A few persons present at the spot stopped the fight following which Bhaskar left the spot along with his friend Karthik on a bike.

Accused Devaraj

Victim Vijay Bhaskar

Devaraj, who followed Bhaskar and Karthik on his bike, waylaid them near Kenchalagodu Gate and allegedly stabbed Bhaskar all of a sudden. Karthik also sustained injuries in the incident. Bhaskar, who was bleeding profusely, was rushed to a private hospital, where he succumbed to injuries on Wednesday.

Jayapura Police, who had initially registered an attempt to murder case, converted the case into a murder case and launched a hunt to nab Devaraj. The Police traced and arrested him on Sathyamangala Road near Chamarajanagar on Wednesday night.

Miscreants threaten engineer of transporting drugs, extort Rs. 5 lakh

Mysuru, July 19 (SBD&KS)- Miscreants, who threatened an engineer in the guise of Mumbai Police of transporting drugs through courier, have extorted Rs. 5 lakh from him and a case has been registered at Yelwal Police Station.

The engineer, who was extorted Rs. 5 lakh by the miscreants is 40-year-old Puneeth (name changed), a resident of a layout near Kumarabeedu in Yelwal.

About a week ago, Puneeth got a call on his mobile phone and the caller on the other end, who spoke in English, told Puneeth that he was from Mumbai Police Department. He then told Puneeth that a courier sent in his name and Aadhaar number to TV Irani in Mumbai had drugs in it and told Puneeth that he had to come to Mumbai whenever he was called to give his statements.

Puneeth, who had opened a Bank account in Chennai, had linked his Aadhaar card number and mobile phone number while opening the Bank account. Assuming that his details have been misused, he continued his conversation with the caller.

The caller on the other end of the phone then told Puneeth to give them money so that they will solve the issue in India itself and then return the money. Believing the caller, Puneeth initially transferred Rs. 98,887 and after 10 minutes he again transferred Rs. 3.99 lakh. In all, Puneeth had transferred Rs. 4,97,887 to the Bank account, the caller had told him.

As Puneeth did not receive any information from the caller, he called the mobile number from which the caller had called only to receive the message that the phone was switched off.

Puneeth, who realised that he has been cheated, immediately called 1930 and got his Bank account put on hold. But it is not easy to get back the money he had lost.

Derogatory remarks on Agnipath Scheme

BJP Ex-Servicemen Cell Member demands apology from Rahul Gandhi

State Committee Member of BJP Purva Sainik Prakoshta Siddaramu, addressing media persons at City BJP Office on Wednesday as others look on.

Mysuru, July 19 (MTY&BS)- Siddaramu, State Committee Member of BJP Purva Sainik Prakoshta (Ex-Servicemen Cell), has demanded an apology from Opposition Leader in Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi, for issuing derogatory statements about Agnipath Yojana (Scheme), insulting the soldiers.

Addressing media persons at City BJP Office recently, Siddaramu said "Prime Minister Narendra Modi introduced Agnipath Yojana to recruit youths as Agniveers for a period of four years, keeping in mind the future of the country's youngsters. Those recruited shall be receiving a monthly salary in the pay band of Rs. 25,000 to Rs. 45,000 and upon completion of their service period, they will be liable for a lumpsum amount of Rs. 14 lakh. Unaware of the benefits provided to Agniveers, Rahul Gandhi has insulted the soldiers of the country."

Siddaramu further said, after completing four years of service, Agniveers will be eligible for reservation in recruitments conducted at Government and Private sectors, along with the additional benefit of recruitments in armed forces too. This scheme benefits youths in the age group of 17 to 24 years, suffice to develop patriotic spirit and discipline in them. It is mainly aimed at strengthening the armed forces, by imparting training to youths in the interest of country's security system.

However, Rahul Gandhi goes on to condemn the scheme, without having a detailed knowledge of benefits entailing the scheme, he added.

BJP Spokesperson M. Mohan said, Agnipath Yojana comes in handy for youths and as an evidence, 88,000 youths are already rendering service as Agniveers, with 1.75 lakh youths applying for the same. Every citizen should develop a feeling of serving the country and this Yojana is oriented towards sprouting such feelings, he added.

Ex-Serviceman Doddegowda and BJP Media Convener Maheshraje Urs were present.

Waiting for Donald Trump -1

It was a great escape, a providential escape from sure death for Donald Trump. An assassin's bullet just grazed his right ear. There was blood. There was evil. It is believed Democracy does not draw blood to choose its leader, ruler. But unfortunately it does draw blood like it happened with Donald Trump last Saturday and before him in America.

Donald Trump with ear bandage after assassination bid.

While violence is inevitable and part of the war, violence cannot be inevitable and part of an election. Political violence of this kind is totally unacceptable. Period. Specially in an election to choose our rulers through ballots, there is no room for bullets.

After Trump was defeated in his attempt for a second term in office by his present rival Joe Biden in 2021, Trump has been demonised no end as a threat to Democracy and more by the Democrats — the American Left-Liberals of the kind we have here in India opposed to BJP and Modi. In a sense we can draw a parallel of Trump to Modi. This comparison may appear odious as comparing one child with the other, but it is true.

Those who are desperate and impatient to capture political power demonise the putative favourites of the people as working to undermine the Democracy. Look, how in our country those who undermined the Indian Constitution are accusing BJP and Modi of trying to undermine our Constitution when in fact it was they who undermined the Constitution in 1975, bringing in Emergency. Not just this, Congress later amended the Constitution any number of times to suit their policy and vote-bank politics. Wonder, why the Left-Liberals did not see Modi reverentially bowing to the copy of the Constitution in the Parliament? Was it the sign of his attempt to undermine the Constitution?

America is clearly divided as Right Republican (Trump) and Left Democrat (Biden). Just as India is divided as BJP Right-wing (Narendra Modi) and Congress Left-wing (Rahul Gandhi). This comparison may be only on the surface, deep down the issues and problems are different to America and India.

However, it is reasonable for Americans to anticipate what could happen in case Trump wins in November 2024. Like we in India were worried what would happen if Narendra Modi did not win. Fortunately, he won. I am sure if Trump wins in November 2024 election there will be a "America-India Bhai-Bhai," a great camaraderie between two old friends!

Trump has already delivered his ideological trade-mark MAGA — Make America Great Again — red P-cap to Americans. Of course, those who agree with him will wear it, whether the cap fits or not!

Are there any caps in India to flaunt a party's ideology? Yes, during freedom movement there was white, Khaddar, Gandhi cap looking like white paper boat. Then came the black cap of the same shape worn by the RSS. This was followed by Mulayam Singh Yadav's red cap worn by his Samajwadi Party (SP) members and we see today worn by his son and SP Supremo Akhilesh Yadav (educated in SJCE, Mysuru). O, yes. What about Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) — white cap with party name printed on it.

There is a narrative making the rounds about what would happen to the US government after Trump takes the Reins of government. One is inscrutable. That is about replacing some of the government employees comprising mostly civil servants who, the Pundits of the Left think, are insulated from partisan pressure. But Trump is not sure about this thinking of the Democrats and may replace them with political appointees. Well, for obvious reasons. I guess we in India too have the same problem or call it dilemma.

For decades we had one party Government, Congress, and the civil servants were used to its patronage and ideology. I was told Modi had this problem during his first term — the problem of detoxification, to humour. Modi had to deal with civil servants who were loyal to Congress.

Be that as it may, I personally feel that this idea would encourage the pernicious "spoil system," as after winning a war. This is not good for good administration. Instead, the new Leader (winner) should show his leadership by winning the loyalty of the civil servants which is MOST important for good governance. But should not the President or Prime Minister reward those who helped him win? Yes, but not by replacing the government employees. Indian Constitution makers are clever and wise. Which is why they created the gubernatorial offices of Governors and Chairmen of Commissions!

Musing over such questions, I am inclined to separate patriotic politicians from power-seeker politicians.

Rain batters Kodagu

A landslide at Karthoji near Madenadu on the Madikeri-Mangaluru Highway. A night traffic ban has been imposed on this road.

Madikeri, July 19 (AG&BCT)- Heavy torrential rain accompanied by gusty winds has thrown normal life out of gear in Kodagu district over the last few days. To make matters worse, the India Meteorological Department has forecast heavy to very heavy rains. Schools, colleges and Anganwadis have been shut today as a precautionary measure.

As per the data released by the office of the Kodagu Deputy Commissioner this morning, the district has received 105.71 mm of rain in the last 24 hours ending at 8:30 am on July 19. Madikeri taluk alone recorded 135.4 mm, while Virajpet and Ponnampet taluks recorded 113.0 mm and 74 mm, respectively.

Somwarpet taluk recorded 112.2 mm of rain in the last 24 hours, while Kushalnagar taluk recorded 44.6 mm. Shanthalli in Somwarpet received 174 mm by the morning of July 18, and in the last 5 days, it has recorded 900 mm of rainfall.

Bhagamandala has received 222.2 mm of rainfall in the last 24 hours. The rain data collected from some places in Kodagu in the last 24 hours includes Napoklu (150.2 mm), Sampaje (102.5 mm), Ammatti (148.5 mm), Ponnampet (74 mm), Balele (46.5 mm), Hudikeri (84.6 mm), Srimangala (85.0 mm), and Suntikoppa (71 mm).

Excess rainfall percentage

According to the daily natural disaster situation report, from June 1 to 18, the district received 1018.0 mm of rainfall, with Kodlipet receiving 290 percent of its usual rainfall, Sanivarsante 164 percent, Santhahalli 223 percent, Virajpet 158 percent, Kushalnagar 430 percent, Suntikoppa 314 percent, Hudikeri 272 percent, and Srimangala recording 153 percent.

In the last 24 hours, two houses were fully damaged, four were severely damaged, and 16 houses were partially damaged. 51 electric poles crashed, disrupting the electricity supply.

The Cauvery River, which is in spate, is flowing above the danger mark at Bethri and Kushalnagar, with heavy discharge from Harangi. Water rafting at T. Shettigeri in Srimangala hobli near Tata Tea Estate has been banned due to the Cauvery being in spate.

Overflowing rivers and streams

Water is flowing over the Napoklu and Madikeri Road. On the Kaggodlu-Biligeri Road, one side of the bridge is eroding. In Kushalnagar area, heavy rains and overflowing Cauvery River have caused significant hardships for residents and business owners at Sai Layout. The municipality is using loudspeakers to alert citizens to relocate their belongings to safer areas.

Yesterday, from 12 noon to 2 pm, Gonikoppal and its surrounding areas experienced a cloudburst, flooding the town and the main road. Widespread rain has caused landslides and damage to homes in various parts of the district, with water pooling on roads and hindering movement. Some families with damaged homes have been relocated, and relief distribution is underway.

Due to the rising water levels in the Cauvery River, the District Administration is taking steps to relocate families living near the river in areas like Karadigodu, Siddapura and Nelyahudikeri. Tahsildars from different taluks have visited the affected areas to assess the damage.

Night traffic ban on Mangaluru-Madikeri highway

Starting last night, all vehicle movement in the night will be prohibited on the Mangaluru-Madikeri highway due to road repair work near Karthoji village, as per the orders of the Kodagu Deputy Commissioner. The night traffic ban orders will be enforced till July 22. 'Kalaji Kendras' have been opened at Siddapura's Karadigodu, Balyamundur & B. Shettigeri in Ponnampet taluk. Food items, bedding, soap and water have been given. Following the landslides, relocating residents of Maletirike Betta and Ayyappa Betta in Virajpet is now necessary.

Mysuru-Nanjangud Highway Under Water

Lakshminarayana Yadav]*

The villagers nearby, who rushed to catch a glimpse of the Highway that resembles an extended river area, were seen playing in water and recording fun and frolicking moments, on their cell phone cameras.

The incessant rain in the last 24 hours, with no respite yet, has led to a surge in inflow of water to Kabini, Nugu and Taraka Dams in neighbouring H.D. Kote taluk in the district, following heavy rains in Wayanad, the catchment area in neighbouring Kerala State.

Whenever there is a heavy rainfall contributing to the inflow of water into the dams in the region, the flood water inundates the areas in the vicinity of Kapila river in Nanjangud.

The Snana Ghatta (bath area) at Kapila river, where the devotees of Srikanteshwara Swamy temple take a holy dip, is flowing above danger level, with the water flooding towards Nanjangud-Chamarajanagar Road, submerging Mudi Katte (where devotees tonsure their head) on the premises of bath area.

Police have barricaded the area around river and have been making announcements to prevent any unruly people from venturing close to the water.

The landmark Hadinaaru Kalu Mantapa, a heritage structure standing on 16 pillars in Kapila River, is also totally submerged, indicating the substantial rise in water level.

Similarly, at Suttur Srikshetra in Nanjangud taluk, the bridge above River Kapila is inundated, keeping the shrine out of bounds for devotees visiting the place from Mysuru side.

Holiday for Mysuru Schools
Last minute decision irks parents

With no respite from rain, the Mysuru District Administration announced holiday for the schools in the district today, as a precautionary measure.

Deputy Director of School Education and Literacy Department H.K. Pandu said "All schools including primary, middle and high school have been declared holiday for the day, as a precautionary measure."

However, as the holiday was declared at the eleventh hour, at about 8 am, most of the schools communicated the same to parents subsequently on WhatsApp groups, stretching up to 8.30 am, that irked the parents, as most of the children had already left for school either in school bus or private vehicles.

The working couples, who drop their wards early at schools, had to bear the brunt, with the sudden declaration of holiday for schools.

Second Ashada Friday: Chamundi Hill temple fruitfully decorated

Mysuru, July 19 (MTY&DM)- Braving intermittent rains, devotees thronged Chamundeshwari temple atop Chamundi Hill to have darshan of Goddess Chamundeshwari on the second Ashada Friday this morning.

Puja rituals commenced as early as 3.30 am and the temple was thrown open to devotees at 6 am.

In spite of steady rains, which is giving no respite to Mysureans for the past couple of days, the devotees started queuing up at the Hill temple after KSRTC started its free service to the Hill top at 5 am. However, according to sources, the number of devotees during the second Ashada Friday is a bit lesser as compared to the first one on July 12.

Perhaps for the first time, the entire precincts of the Hill temple was magnificently decorated with a variety of fruits, flowers and vegetables such as apple, grapes, coconuts, cucumber etc.

Rains did not deter the devotees who chose to climb the 1,008 Hill steps right from early morning to seek the blessings and to fulfil their vows.

Entry of all types of private vehicles to the Hill temple was banned and devotees were required to take free KSRTC buses from Lalitha Mahal grounds, which will be available till 8 pm.

Police had made elaborate security arrangements for ensuring the safety and security of devotees. They were seen making regular public announcements asking devotees to take care of their belongings and to be beware of thieves, pickpockets and miscreants.

Yeshwanthpur BJP MLA S.T. Somashekar, also a former Co-operation and Mysuru District In-charge Minister, Congress leader H.V. Rajeev and others also had the darshan of the deity this morning.

Delayed return of MUDA

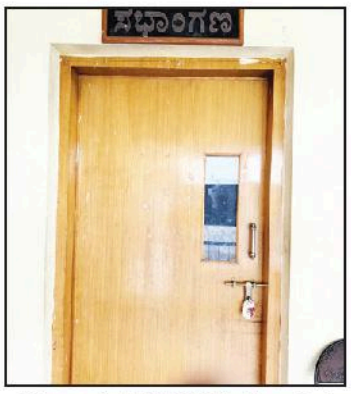
probe team causes confusion

City services in limbo; public concern grows over incomplete investigations

Mysuru, July 19 (RK&BCT)- The Inquiry Committee formed by the State Government, under senior IAS Officer R. Venkatachalapathy, Commissioner of Urban Development Authorities and Town and Country Planning, to probe the MUDA land scams, has still not resumed its investigation after departing for Bengaluru last Friday (July 12).

The team began the probe in the first week of July and had been stationed in Mysuru until July 12. Before leaving for Bengaluru, the team sealed the MUDA Meeting Hall containing files and records, informing the MUDA officers that they would return on Monday (July 15), as July 13 (Saturday) was a Second Saturday holiday and Sunday (July 14) was a general holiday.

MUDA officers expected the team to return on July 15. However, there was no information about the team's arrival on Tuesday (July 16) and Wednesday (July 17). Moreover, July 17 was a Government holiday for Moharram, leading MUDA officers to assume the team would return on Thursday, July 18.



The sealed MUDA Meeting Hall

However, even as the MUDA officers waited for the team yesterday, the Inquiry Committee did not return, leading to confusion among the MUDA officers. The team did not return even on July 19 (today).

Additionally, the State Government has constituted a One-Man Judicial Commission, headed by Justice Padmaraj Nemachandra Desai, a retired Judge of the Karnataka High Court, to investigate the MUDA scam in parallel, even before the Inquiry Committee completed its probe and submitted its report.

Sources in MUDA told the Star of Mysore that the Government might have recalled the officers in the Inquiry Committee for their routine work in Bengaluru.

Only initial uproar

Meanwhile, even the One-Man Judicial Commission is yet to begin investigating the irregularities. Alert public who have been observing these developments are bewildered to see neither the Inquiry Committee submitting its interim or final report nor the One-Man Judicial Commission beginning the probe after the initial brouhaha over the reports of misuse of money and power.

These developments, sources say, indicate that the Government is not serious about uncovering the truth in MUDA affairs and is protecting the politicians, the rich and the powerful.

In the meantime, all routine public service activities in MUDA have come to a complete standstill. Officers can neither accept new applications nor finish pending work. Even development works have stopped, as the Government has made clear that no activity can take place unless the investigation is complete.

Conspiracy to cover up

MUDA scam: MLA T.S. Srivatsa

'CM Siddaramaiah's demeanour softened following exposure of scam worth thousands of crores'

Mysuru, July 19 (MTY&BCT)- Krishnaraja MLA T.S. Srivatsa has raised suspicions of a cover-up in the ongoing scam in the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), criticising the Government's decision to form a One-Man Judicial Commission led by a retired Judge with a six-month time-frame for the investigation.

Speaking to reporters in Mysuru on Wednesday, Srivatsa highlighted that a team of senior IAS officers was initially formed to investigate the MUDA scam, with a mandate to submit a report within a month.

"Now, a One-Man Judicial Commission has been formed under the leadership of a retired Judge with a six-month time-frame, which suggests a tactic to delay the case," he said.

Minister's role under scrutiny

Srivatsa further criticised Urban Development Minister Byrathi Suresh, who initially denied the occurrence of any scam in MUDA. "Later, he visited MUDA and held a meeting, taking important documents with him to Bengaluru with mala fide intentions. We have records of what he took and we will reveal all those documents in the Legislative Assembly Session," Srivatsa stated.

Siddaramaiah Srivatsa

He also pointed out that the Minister had announced the retrieval of any illegally acquired MUDA property, but no order has been issued in this regard.

"The Government itself has acknowledged that a scam occurred, which is why it formed an investigation team," Srivatsa remarked. He noted a change in CM Siddaramaiah's demeanour following the scam's exposure.

"Siddaramaiah has become soft. He is not the same as before and is disturbed by the mistakes he has made and is silent because he is involved in the MUDA scam," Srivatsa said.

Interference with MUDA affairs

Srivatsa agreed with the statements made by Mysuru District in-charge Minister, Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa, that no elected representatives should be appointed as members of MUDA.

"MUDA falls under the Government's jurisdiction and is similar to other Corporations. There is no need to appoint members. It is sufficient if officials perform their duties according to Government regulations," he said.

He emphasised that this would prevent elected representatives from interfering in MUDA's functioning.

Advocate calls for a thorough investigation

Meanwhile, advocate M.A. Puttasiddegowda addressing the media persons called for an thorough investigation into the activities of MUDA from the year 2000 to till date, asserting that the truth will come to light.

WORD OF THE DAY

Tautology

Pronunciation: tau·tol·o·gy tȯ-ˈtä-lə-jē .
Meaning: Needless repetition of an idea, statement, or word.
Origin: In literary criticism and rhetoric, a tautology is a statement that repeats an idea, using near-synonymous morphemes, words or phrases, effectively "saying the same thing twice". Tautology and pleonasm are not consistently differentiated in literature. Like pleonasm, tautology is often considered a fault of style when unintentional. Intentional repetition may emphasise a thought or help the listener or reader understand a point. Sometimes logical tautologies like "Boys will be boys" are conflated with language tautologies, but a language tautology is not inherently true, while a logical tautology always is.
The word was coined in Koine Greek from ταὐτός ('the same') plus λόγος ('word' or 'idea'), and transmitted through 3rd-century Latin tautologia and French tautologie. It first appeared in English in the 16th century. The use of the term logical tautology was introduced in English by Wittgenstein in 1919, perhaps following Auguste Comte's usage in 1835. "Repetition of the same idea or meaning" (as in they arrived simultaneously at the same time); 1570s, from Late Latin tautologia "representation of the same thing in other words," from Greek tautologia, from tautologos "repeating what has been said." This is a compound of tauto "the same" (see tauto-) + -logos "saying" (see Logos)." Related: Tautological; tautologically; tautologous; tautologize.

THE ODD WORD

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Take the fall

Meaning: Take the fall means accept the blame and possibly the punishment for another's wrongdoing.
Origin: Although the word "fall" originated in Old English, the origin of the phrase "take the fall" or "take a fall" meaning one incurs the blame for a misdeed perpetrated by another originated in the 1920s. At first, it was used only in criminal underworld slang; by the middle of 1900s, the phrase was extended to less criminal types of blame.
Example: "It was brave of him to take the fall for Danny like that."
